

Randall L. Eaton, PhD
Scholar, Educator, Concerned World Citizen

So Randall Eaton is applying for a position ..I am envious. I wish we could convince him to return to Wyoming. I wish I could teach with him again. I wish I could study with him again. I wish we could throw ideas into our common incubator again. I issue this warranty. You will not be sorry if hire him... Randy Eaton will expand your concept of the citizen-scholar-teacher.

How can I make that prediction? I know him well. I have taught with him. I have read his publications, though not all. I have I have seen him work. I know him abilities.

Here is what you can expect.

✓A Probing and Active Intellect

Randy is a life-long learner driven by an amazingly active mind. His capacity for critical thinking and his problem solving skills are amongst the highest I have ever encountered.

✓Disciplined Work Habits

Randy's achievements reflect the unquestionable fact that he is a very capable and disciplined worker. This quality, in my opinion, speaks volumes about an individual's future. When perseverance is the only way to meet a goal, he is up to the task.

✓A Focused Mature Sense of Commitment

Randy's high achievement is not marked by obsessive ambition. He has the necessary motivation to carry him through rigorous research. He is confident, but not arrogant. As a result, he gets along well with everyone.

✓A Global World View

Randy shows superior initiative in the energy he commits to his volunteer work especially the work that is critical to wildlife's place in our world. He has a true international perspective. He is simply a gifted public speaker.

Conclusion:

Randall L. Eaton would be competitive anywhere he chooses to work.... Hire him and I promise you that you will be pleased with the result. He is simply one of the most committed, best organized, highest energy, and most interesting people I have ever had the pleasure of meeting.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Craig Thompson
